

Lynhaven Neighborhood Association
Minutes – November 18, 2010
(Pending approval at January meeting)

Meeting called to order: 7:00 p.m.

Quorum confirmed: 15 in attendance

October minutes approved.

Announcement – Debbie Morrison

No meeting in December. Please come to the January meeting to plan for 2011
Special cake served to honor and thank all LNA volunteers.

Treasurer's Report – given by Debbie Morrison. Jerry Giles absent.

$3,165.87 in treasury. $1,100 spent on Dumpster Day.

$190 in new and renewed membership dues collected on Dumpster Day.

Guest Speaker: Matt King, Sacred Heart Community Service

District 1 Report – Nome. Elizabeth Sanford not present.

Committee Updates

Dumpster Day – It went well. Completed by 12 noon. Two dumpsters filled.
67 people dumped items. 17 volunteers worked. Ideas for next year may include gleaning metal items for $ and / or a trading day.

Website – Being updated monthly by Dean Sala.

Traffic – Nothing to report.

Winchester Business Association – Clark. Bus. Assoc. will sponsor a BBQ, which will be open to the public on 6/11/11. LNA encouraged to participate.

Winchester NAC – Clark. The police dept. and a commercial company may be working with Neighborhood Watch to provide security cameras in the future.

District 1 Leadership Group – Clark and Mary Ann reported on a talk by LeDoris Cordell, new Police Auditor. Call 791-6226 re police matters needing investigation.

Officers for 2011 elected:

President: Debbie Morrison Vice President: Clark Leakins

Secretary: Rene Francis Treasurer: Jerry Giles

Discussion Topics

Old McDonald's is a new business on Saratoga Ave.

Sue McMillin reminded us that putting outgoing mail in our post boxes could invite thievery.

A home break-in on Madonna Dr. and several car break-ins on Bundy were noted.

Monica Lanker reminded us that a dog can be a deterrent to a break-in.

Delores Mayes passed out brochures re safety for seniors.

Chuck Mayes reminded us of San Jose's $70 million deficit for next year. A ban on plastic bags is being considered.

Debbie Morrison reported that a Neighborhood Watch meeting will be held for Shearton residents. Other blocks are encouraged to do the same. Contact Kim Gaddis, S.J.P.D, if interested, at 277-4133.

Meeting adjourned: 8:17 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Natalie Heling, Secretary

